

PREMIUM HOME COMPLETION

The interior is designed in a light and bright palette that enhances the panoramic sea views and fills the space with serenity. Natural materials—decorative veneer panels and natural stone accents—provide elegance and warmth. The touches of color in the textile create a subtle and sophisticated contrast, giving life to the space and reinforcing its unique character. A perfect balance between natural aesthetics and contemporary lightness.

DAY ZONE

Ground floor

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Living-dining room

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Living-dining room

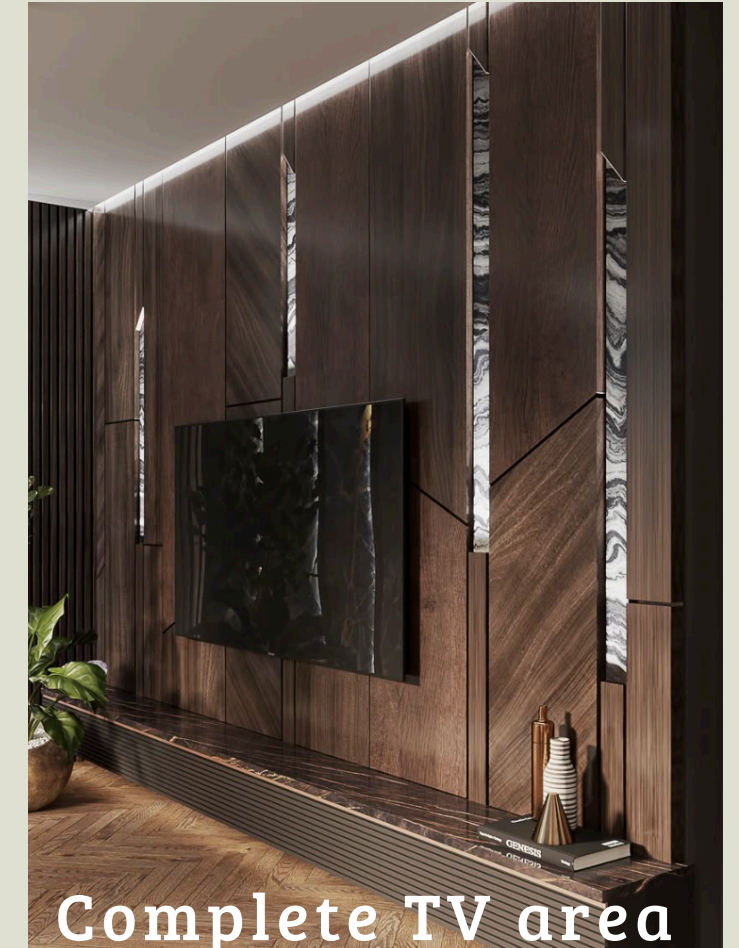

4-seater sofa

Cushions

Rug

Complete TV area

Coffee table

Side table

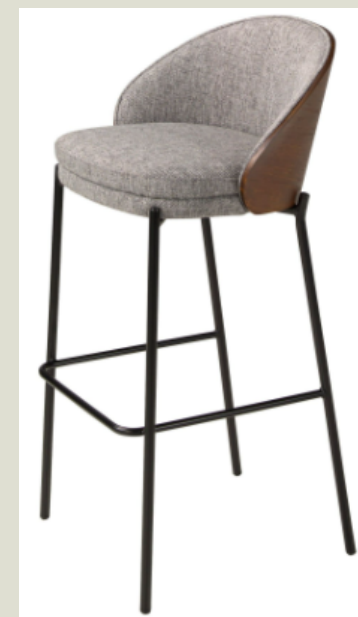

Puffs

Dining tables

Dining chair

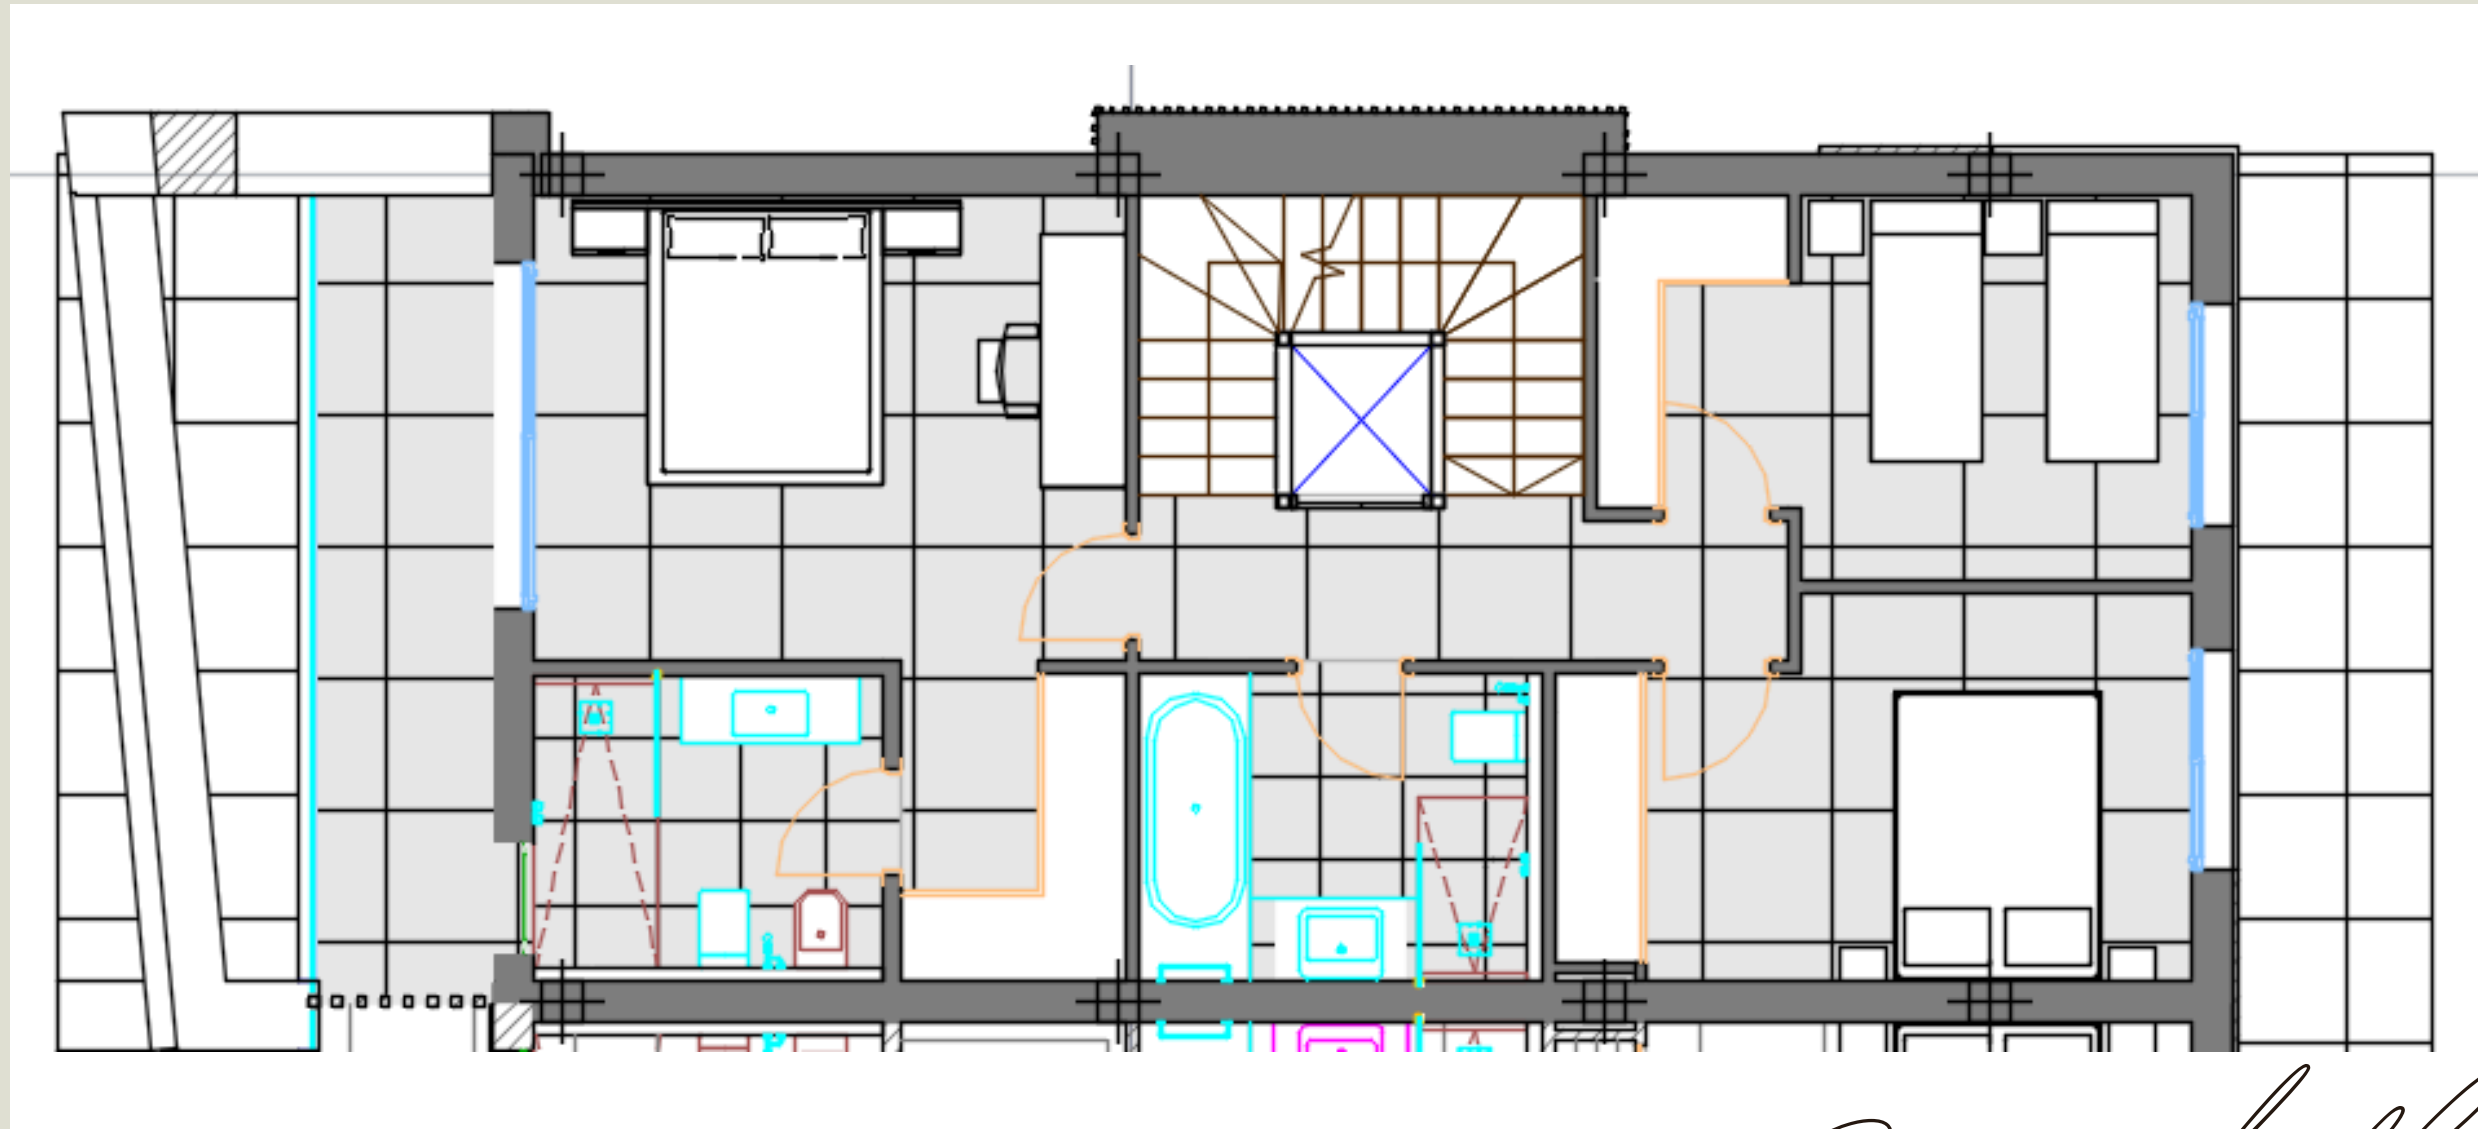

Stools

Pendant lamps

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Bedrooms

Second floor

Master bedroom

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Master bedroom

Wall panels

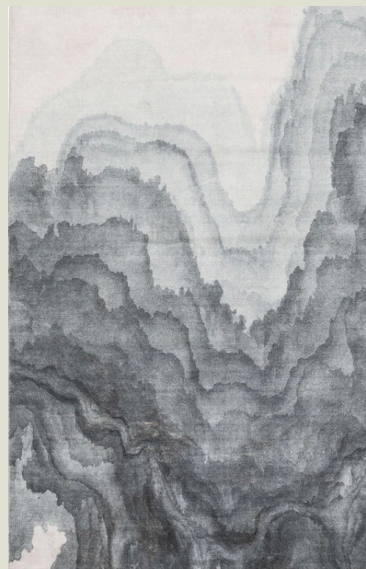

Bed 160*200

Nightstands

Curtains

Rug

Armchair

Lamps

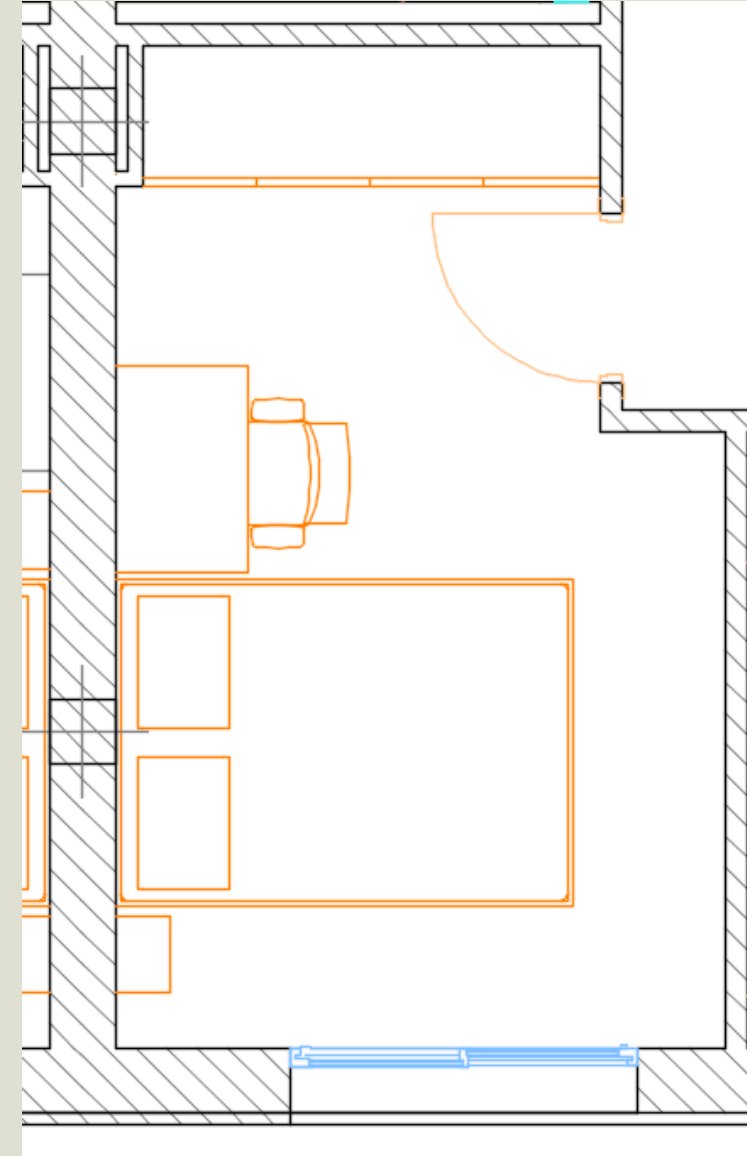

Cushions

TV shelf

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Bedroom 2

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Bedroom 2

Wall panels

Lamps

Bed 150*200

Desk with chair

Curtains

Rug

Cushions

Nightstand

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Bedroom 3

The real estate project may be subject to modifications in accordance with the processing of urban planning licenses and the applicable legal requirements that will be carried out directly by the project builder. The images shown are a graphic and illustrative representation, they contain elements of aesthetic appreciation that are interpretations of the architect and designer of the project, therefore, they do not commit the promoting company. The user understands and accepts that variations in design and finishes may occur.

Bedroom 3

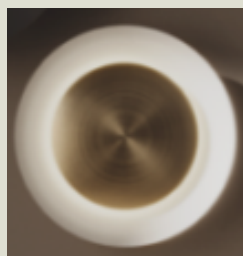

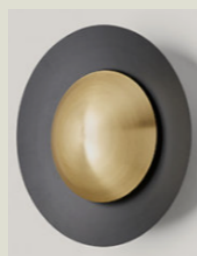

Desk

Chair

Lamps

Bed 90*200

Curtains

Rug

Cushions

Interior design offer

Offer includes:
interior design service,
delivery,
installation

Payment terms:
10% reservation
65% payment in advance
25% after installation

price 115, 500
plus VAT 21%